LOOK OUT FOR COLDS---CATARRH

Don't let this Winter bring to you the annoyance of Catarrh and suffering which every man and woman who is afflicted with this disease, has cause to dread.

First of all remember, if you will continue to suffer with Catarrh, it is your own fault. Catarrh is worse in Winter because the most common place precautions against germs and contaminations are neglected.

We go to stuffy theatres and inhale over and over again vitiated and germ-laden air. We sit in over-heated rooms, neglect exercise, exclude fresh air because it's cold, and in a hundred ways do everything possible to assist in the ravages of a disease that is already making tremendous progress towards a complete sapping of vitality. It is small wonder that Winter brings additional annoyance to Catarrh sufferers. The nostrils, reasonably free in summer, are easily stopped up by the inflammation of the tender membrane, and the phlegm and secretions which cannot readily flow, aggravate the delicate lining of the throat and poison the system. Hawking and spitting becomes more frequent. In fact, Catarrh is not only a nuisance, danger and annoyance to the afflicted, but a continued menace to everybody. Anyone who comes in contact with Catarrh germs, expectorated or exhaled in stuffy rooms, poorly ventilated theatres or cars, may contract the disease. They'll think they have taken cold, but it is more likely that this insidious waster of strength and vigor has hastened itself upon them. They will soon know the Catarrh headache, the disagreeable closing of air passages, they may find it attacking the bones of the nose, the tissues of the ear, resulting in deafness, the loss of smell, for no part of a body is secure from the ravages of Catarrh. Catarrh makes you sick all over. It is a disease of the blood. It circulates through the system, and for this reason sprays, washes, vapours and salves must be failures in curing it. You can relieve Catarrh thoroughly and permanently. S. S. S. will cleanse the blood, relieve unhealthy secretions, reduce the membranous swelling. It will literally wash the blood free from the poison. S. S. S. goes directly to the source of trouble, enriches, while it cleanses the blood. It is a wonderful tonic invigorator. Write us particulars of your case and let our physicians help you get rid of this stubborn and dangerous malady. Our physicians are trained specialists; their services cost you nothing. We will take pleasure in answering questions. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores. Refuse imitations. Write the Swift Specific Company, Medical Department, Room 15, Atlanta, Ga.

Our Evening Thought

The world is striving for success. If you would be successful in your undertakings you must not give up and grow discouraged because your object is not reached at once. Do not count the time put into your work but the success you get out of it.—E. C. Dowd.

The poet Thompson says: "Home is a resort of love, joy of peace and plenty," and if your home does not conform to these standards you are not getting all out of it that you should get out of life. Your children are being deprived of a heritage of pleasant environment to which they are justly entitled. The lack of pleasant environment will taint a child's whole life and his age will be sordid, squalid and mean, while with cheery environments will develop alike the good qualities of a child, and will in a large measure affect the lives of your neighbors. Rossetti says a residence surrounded by flowers is likely to be a happy home. We know they will bring peace to a weary soul and joy and love to a broken heart.

Mrs. M. A. TenEyck most charmingly and elegantly entertained the members of the "Wesley Organized Bible Class" of the Methodist church this afternoon at her beautiful home on the corner of Earl and South Fifth streets. The ladies assembled about 3 o'clock and were greeted by the officers of the club, Mrs. TenEyck, vice president; Mrs. J. M. Gross, teacher; Mrs. Frederick Cook, president; Mrs. J. A. Bouvier, secretary and treasurer. Mrs. TenEyck's home was aglow with pretty lights, flowers and ferns and with cheerful fires in the great open hearths, the atmosphere of cordial hospitality was heartfelt and cheering. Each lady brought a portion of some domestic goods which was nicely folded and placed in a box to be sent immediately to the orphan home at Enterprise, the last request being made from the matron of the home that the organizations send goods to be made into useful articles by the girls of the institution, because so often the girls were without materials to work on and then, too, it is quite necessary to keep the arts of domestic science up to the standard. This initiative is quite commendable and the box prepared at this afternoon's party is calculated to keep the little ladies of the Enterprise institution engaged for some time. After this Mrs. TenEyck distributed a flower contest beautifully hand-script, the questions to be answered by the name of different flowers. This was very clever and most entertaining and to the lady answering the greatest number of questions was presented a dainty hand-made handkerchief with crocheted lace edge. At the close of the afternoon's entertainment the hostess served her guests to a delicious two-course luncheon of sandwiches, coffee, potato chips, pickles, white cake and snow pudding with whipped cream. The entire afternoon was one of greatest pleasure and informality to the thirty ladies present. Mrs. TenEyck is a most gracious hostess and left nothing undone for the enjoyment of her guests.

Friends in this city and surrounding country will be interested to learn that upon a recent visit to Orlando Mrs. G. D. Washburn was signally honored by having the recognition among the devoted workers in the W. C. T. U. of holding more contests in the United States than any one lady during the past year. For her efficient work in the great cause she was presented a silver star from the national organization of the W. C. T. U. and is very happy in its possession. Also she was presented a prize for holding the greatest number of L. T. L. contests in Florida. Mrs. Washburn is to be congratulated for she is indeed an untiring and earnest worker and at the state convention held in Orlando was the recipient of special courtesies and admiration.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheffield of Denver, Col., arrived yesterday afternoon and in all probability will spend the winter in our city. At present they have rooms at the residence of Mrs. E. J. Redding on South Second street. Mr. and Mrs. Sheffield have spent several winters in Florida, but have been away about three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ansley of Tampa, were registered at the Harrington yesterday en route to their home from a business visit to Jacksonville and Gainesville. Mr. and Mrs. Ansley are touring in their machine and have had a delightful outing.

Mrs. Clara Moore Pyles left this afternoon for an indefinite visit to friends at her mother's old home at Moberly, Mo., perhaps spending all winter.

Mrs. C. L. Moore left today to spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Staley and family at Palmetto.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Zewadski Jr. of Tampa will arrive tomorrow for a ten days' visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Zewadski Sr. They will be accompanied by their charming house guest, Miss Marion Phelps of Boston, and Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Zewadski will entertain about ten couples of the older society set in compliment to Miss Phelps.

A merry party of Gainesville ladies spent yesterday in our city, combining business with pleasure, motoring over early in the day. In the party were Mrs. H. H. McCreary, Mrs. Kate Medlin, Mrs. Fletcher Burnett and Miss Marion Gay. While in the city they were registered at the Harrington.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Jackson of Miami arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from a short visit to Dallas, Texas, where they have been in attendance upon the meeting of the Southern Medical Association. After a short visit to Dr. and Mrs. Walter Hood and Mr. and Mrs. Zewadski and family, they left for Cotton Plant for a week's visit to Mrs. Jackson's brother, Mr. Newcomb Barco and family. Dr. and Mrs. Jackson will make a week's visit to relatives in this city before returning home.

The hospital auxiliary of the charity department of the Marion County Hospital met this afternoon with Mrs. W. K. Zewadski on Oklawaha avenue. It was strictly a business meeting and there was a good attendance.

Mrs. W. V. Newsom and daughter, Mrs. Richard Dodge, left this morning for a several weeks' visit to Mrs. Newsom's sister, Mrs. Jack Hiers and family in Miami.

Mrs. S. M. Dillard returned to her home at Summerfield yesterday after a short stay in our city, since the passing of her brother, Dr. W. V. Newsom, last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Becker of Holder spent yesterday in our city, visiting with friends and shopping.

Miss Adele Bittinger will entertain the young ladies' auction club tomorrow afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Jake Brown instead of on Friday, which is the regular club day.

Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Blitch, Miss Legie Blitch and Mrs. B. R. Blitch and Mr. Earl Phillips of Blitchton, formed an auto party to Ocala today. They announce that Mr. Loomis Blitch, who was injured in a football game at Valdosta, Ga., some days ago, is rapidly improving in the hospital at Lake City.

Miss Mary Gates has received a letter from Miss Frances Rowley, her former assistant in the kindergarten here. Miss Rowley has just returned to her home in San Mateo from a pleasant visit to New York.

Mrs. Jack Zimmerman and son, Master Jack Zimmerman of Arcadia, will come up the first of next week to spend some time as the guest of Mrs. Zimmerman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Goodyear and family.

Mrs. J. W. Carr and daughters left yesterday afternoon for Savannah, to make their future home.

Mrs. Geo. K. Robinson entertained the ladies' auction club this afternoon most charmingly at her home assisted by her daughters, Miss Hope Robinson and Mrs. Mills-Price of Boston. The two tables for the players were placed in the attractive parlor of the home and enjoying the several hours of fascinating auction were Mrs. Ernest Crook, Mrs. F. T. Schreiber, Mrs. Chambers, Misses Lou and Minnie Gamsby and Abbie Munroe. A pretty deck of Congress playing cards was given to the one holding the highest score. A refreshment menu was served at the conclusion of the afternoon's pleasures.

Why Do Business Men Advocate The Florida Citrus Exchange?

It is a significant fact that the business men of every community in Florida, which has a Florida Citrus Exchange packing house, proudly advertise this fact to the world.

There is equal significance in the fact that nurserymen, packing house machinery men and others whose future success depends on the prosperity of the citrus industry, are consistent boosters of the Exchange.

No less is it significant that bankers, land company operators, newspapers and others interested in bringing to Florida men and money for the further development of the State, make a great deal of the Exchange as the key to the future.

These things would not be true, and the keenest business men of Florida today would not be such staunch supporters of the Florida Citrus Exchange, if in their judgment it had failed to do the work for which it was founded.

The degree of success which can be attained by the Exchange in the future working out and execution of plans for the good of the citrus industry in Florida depends upon the measure of support it receives from the growers of the State, and with control of fifty per cent or more of the citrus fruits grown in Florida it can do twice as well for its grower-members as with twenty-five per cent.

Now is the time to add your support to that of your fellow-growers in making bigger and better the Florida Citrus Exchange—the only truly co-operative body now at work for citrus Florida. Put your fruit in the Exchange and sell it yourself—you will have as much voice in the organization as any other member. See the manager of your local association, if there is one in your community, otherwise communicate with this office.

—THE— DIAMOND FROM THE SKY

he clutches the deer head crosser, rears it to ascertain if it has been injured, and his trembling hand closes upon the diamond.

The roof has crashed, maimed and pinioned down a score of men and women who but a moment before murderously sought one another's lives.

"A gypsy woman bereft of reason in faroff Richmond."

Some lie crushed to death's stillness beneath the wreckage. Of these there is one stalwart young man in auto costume. His face, blanched in death or unconsciousness, is cameo-like. It is Arthur Stanley. A great timber is across his chest, and he is crushed and sorely shattered.

"Are you hurt, dearie?" asks Kansas Em, turning to Esther from the sickening sight of the wreckage and the hideous cries which still rise loudly behind them.

Esther is sick and faint. "I am not hurt," she said tremulously, "but where is Arthur? Has he escaped? Is he killed?"

"Was he your friend?" asked Kansas Em. "Why, that's the boss, Mr. John Powell, the millionaire, who has just bought the mines around here. He had just arrived when this broke loose. Is he your friend?"

Esther could have said that the young man known as John Powell was her only friend in all the world, save the poor Italian, Quabba, and a gypsy woman bereft of reason in faroff Richmond. But Esther said no word, but sped to the ruins and fought her way through several groups of men and women, who, coming to their senses, were beginning the work of rescue in the face of the flames that were now bursting out in several places in the wreckage.

The crackling fire shed its light among the ruins and down in such interstices as where Esther thrust herself in search of Arthur. Those who were pinned in the wreckage and were conscious of the added peril of fire screamed and begged for aid and succor.
